COMMUNICATION

My experience in teaching and working in the animation industry has given me good communication skills and I am always willing to help a team member out. I always convey any queries to my lead/directors before starting on an animation.

LEADERSHIP

I have taken on lead animator responsibilities within my current project at BBF. This includes a two-week period when our lead animator was on leave. In my previous career as a teacher, I took on many roles outside of my main job.
